FROM GLENSTED.

Miss Myrtle Baker, of Sedalia, is visiting relatives here this week.

A. V. Cooper is sawing wood here with his sawing outfit and steam engine.

Rev. John Moon preached at the Concrete church Sunday morning, and Rev. L. R. Kenney preached at night.

Miss Lizzie Holloway went to Sedalia Monday, to accept a position in the dress-making department of the Cannon Mercantile Co.'s stores.

While Sunday school was in session at the Concrete church last Sunday, it was discovered that the building was on fire. Water was carried and the flames were extinguished. Some little excitement prevailed for a few minutes. The damage was slight.

WALNUT GROVE ITEMS.

Frank Bowman returned from Ohio Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Bowman is very sick.

Mrs. Bud Sims is very sick.

Corn husking is almost done.

Farmers are appreciating the good weather.

O. E. Devinnia and mother are visiting at Akinville.

The country schools are progressing finely.

Sam Ramer had a fine cow to die one day last week.

If people are not well provided with apples, and other things as well, for winter use, it is surely their own fault.

Rev. David Bowman will have a sa'e in the near future.

Mt. Zion and Prairie View will both have services on Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Fannie Thomas visited her sister, Miss May Bowman, last week. The latter is very sick.

Our farmers are preparing for their annual hog killing.

The Best Christmas Present for a Little money.

When your Christmas present is a year's subscription to THE YOUTH'S COMPANION you give as much in good reading as would fill twenty 400-page novels or books of history or travel or biography ordinarily costing $1.50 a volume. Nor do you give quantity at the cost of quality. For more than half a century the wisest, most renowned, most entertaining of writers have been contributors to THE COMPANION. You need never fear that THE COMPANION will be inappropriate or unwelcome. The boy, the girl, every other member of the family, will insist upon a share in it. There is no other present costing so little that goes so far.

On receipt of $1.75, the yearly subscription price, the publishers send to the new subscriber THE COMPANION'S Four Leaf Hanging Calendar for 1907, lithographed in twelve colors and gold, and subscription certificate for the fifty-two issues of the year's volume.

Full illustrated Announcement of THE COMPANION for 1907 will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address free.

Subscribers who get new subscriptions will receive $10,200.00 in cash and many other special awards. Send for information.

There is existing with many people a wrong idea of The Keeley Cure—they think it makes one ill for a few days; or it destroys the mind at first or last; or that there are hardships connected with the treatment. In no case is this true. There is a noticeable improvement from the start; the mind strengthens and recovers its normal condition and as the drugs or alcohol is eliminated a healthy condition is builded.
